Welcome and Housekeeping

- Quick Write: Type messages into chat area

- Polls:
  - a couple of multiple choice polls
  - several “yes/no” polls
Getting Help

- Private message:
  - click on the participant you wish to contact
- “Raise Hand” button
- “Emoticon” buttons
Quick Responses:

Type in the white space and press “Enter.”
POLL: Multiple Choice

Please check what position you hold:

A. Teacher or instructor
B. Curriculum developer, coordinator or coach
C. School or district administrator
D. Other
QUICK POLL: Yes/No

Click the check mark for “yes.”
Click the X for “no.”

AGENDA

- Unit Design Template
- Standards: Grouping
- Essential Understandings
- Unit and Lesson Guiding Questions
- Assessment Examples
- Resources

Please check all those that apply.

I /my colleagues/staff …

A. use a unit template to guide and choreograph curriculum design.

B. know the value of using essential understandings and guiding questions to design curriculum and instruction.

C. are confident creating or evaluating thought-provoking essential understandings and guiding questions to frame instruction aligned to the ELA Common Core (CC) Standards.

D. have developed meaningful and rigorous lessons or units aligned to the ELA CC Standards.
What components are included in a unit template used to design curriculum?

3 COMMON CORE WRITING TYPES:
Opinion/Arguments
Informational/Explanatory
Narrative

#ccss #engchat
What writing do I want students to produce?

Writing Standards (5th Grade)

1. Write opinion pieces on topics or texts, supporting a point of view with reasons and information. (a.) through (d.)

4. Produce clear and coherent writing in which the development and organization are appropriate to task, purpose, and audience.

5. With guidance and support from peers and adults, develop and strengthen writing as needed by planning, revising, editing, rewriting, or trying a new approach.
   `[writing process]`

8. Recall relevant information from experiences or gather relevant information from print and digital sources; summarize or paraphrase information in notes and finished work, and provide a list of sources.

9. Draw evidence from literary or informational texts to support analysis, reflection, and research.
What reading standards support the writing?

Reading Standards for Information Text (5th Grade)

- 1. Quote accurately from a text when explaining what the text says explicitly and when drawing inferences.
- 2. Determine two or more main ideas of a text; explain how they are supported by key details.
- 4. Determine the meaning of words and phrases in a text.
- 5. Compare and contrast the overall structure of ideas, concepts, or information in two or more texts.
- 6. Analyze multiple accounts of the same topic, noting important similarities and differences in the point of view they represent.
- 7. Draw on information from multiple print or digital sources.
- 8. Explain how an author uses reasons and evidence to support particular points in a text.
- 9. Integrate information from several texts on the same topic in order to write about the subject knowledgeably.

* abbreviated
Grouping Standards: COMPLEX SENTENCES

- Complex Sentence: Produce complex sentences (L.3.1i)
- Dependent Clauses: Identify the structure of dependent clauses and their role in complex sentences; Use subordinating conjunctions (L.3.1h)
- Independent Clauses: Define independent clause (i.e., complete sentence with a subject and verb)
- Subordinating Conjunctions: Use subordinating conjunctions (L.3.1h)
- Commas after a dependent clause that begins a sentence: Use a comma to separate an introductory element from the rest of the sentence (L.5.2b)
What are essential understandings?

Why are they important?

How do I write them?
Essential Understanding Examples

1. Authors use dialect to reflect culture and sometimes era thereby authenticating the voice.

2. Settings influence characters’ actions and perspectives.

3. As humans evolve, they develop the technology to use resources in more sophisticated ways for survival and growth.

4. Exploration can fuel control and exploitation of vulnerable cultures.

Questions That Drive Essential Understandings

- What do you want your students to really remember beyond the individual facts?
- What is the essence of this particular unit of study? The “so what” factor?
- How can you help students transfer the knowledge they learn across subjects and grades?
- How can you help students make various connections: text-to-self, text-to-text, text-to-world?
TYPE IN CHAT: What topic for a unit of study might a teacher conduct to address this essential understanding?

Intolerance leads to unspeakable actions which can desensitize a community and cause people to act immorally.
Type verbs that are used to connect the underlined concepts in these essential understandings.

1. Characters’ traits and motivations drive their actions and contribute to plot development.

2. Settings influence characters’ actions and perspectives.

3. New governments may debate and compromise to devise an effective system that satisfies the varied needs of its society.

Characteristics of Essential UNIT Guiding Questions

- relate to essential understandings
- may show relationship between 2 concepts
- void of proper nouns
- have transference
- cannot be answered with a list
- represent the essence of the unit
- begin with “why” or “how”
- are posted all unit long

History: A Story Well Told

1. How does the historical setting affect the plot?

2. How do characters change throughout time?

3. How does the theme of conflict present itself in the plot and setting?

4. How do characters address and resolve conflicts?
Which of these do you or your teachers already do when writing guiding questions?

1. Focus each question on distinct concepts or skills.
2. Design lessons, activities, and assessments around guiding questions as the purpose for learning.
3. Write questions so students understand them.
4. Consider the number of questions.
5. Sequence the questions in the order for teaching.
6. Display the unit guiding questions throughout unit; feature the lesson questions as day’s objective.

How about other opposites?

- bullies – non-bullies
- protagonist – antagonist
- neoclassic – medieval (literary periods)
- Charles I – Parliament
- One culture – different culture
- Capulets – Montagues
- Magna Carta – Bill of Rights
- Fiction – nonfiction
- Angiosperms – gymnosperms
- Protons – electrons
- Native Americans – Settlers
What is a formative assessment example tied to targeted ELA CC Standards?

CCR Anchor Standard 1 for Reading: Read closely to determine what the text says explicitly and to make logical inferences from it; cite specific textual evidence when writing or speaking to support conclusions drawn from the text.

EXAMPLE 2:
What do I learn from the text? How can I support this?
How does the story’s setting affect this character?

What does another say about the character?

Why does the character change throughout time?

Create a metaphor for a setting or character in the text.

Create your own simile for a setting or character in the text.

Compare and contrast two characters in the text.

How can a change in setting affect a character?
